

JOB/INTERNSHIP SEARCHES IN INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH & DEVELOPMENT

Updated October 2011

CCIH Student Outreach strives to assist students as well as young and experienced professionals seeking jobs or internships in international development, with special focus on health. For an electronic version of this listing, including convenient hyperlinks to websites, visit our website, www.ccih.org Careers>Resources. For further resources, including suggestions for public health education, and resume and cover letter help, visit our web resources at <http://www.ccih.org/resources-for-students.html>.

NGO JOBS & INTERNSHIPS

1. Private & Voluntary Organizations registered with USAID jobs & internships in international health: http://www.usaid.gov/our_work/cross-cutting_programs/private_voluntary_cooperation/pub.html. See also http://www.usaid.gov/our_work/cross-cutting_programs/private_voluntary_cooperation/tools.html
2. Worldwide NGO Directory compiled by the World Association of Non-Governmental Organizations (WANGO): www.wango.org/resources.aspx?section=ngodir#tab1. Browse the list of NGOs by region/criteria.
3. CORE, a coalition of NGO collaborators with USAID on child survival, provides information for both consultant job seekers and recruiters: www.childsurvival.com/tools/consultants_db.cfm. CORE's current job listings, or subscribe to their weekly email jobs list: <http://www.coregroup.org/jobs/jobconnection.cfm>
4. InterAction, the largest coalition of US NGOs: For profiles of members: <http://interaction.org/members/>. Download Monday Developments with job information: <http://www.gifttool.com/shop/ShopDepartment?ID=1429&VER=1&LNG=EN&DID=889>. To receive a weekly email with 20-30 job/internship announcements ($20 a month), email publications@interaction.org.
5. Doctors Without Borders internships year-round: <http://www.doctorswithoutborders.org/work/office/internships.cfm?ref=main-menu>
6. Population Services International internships year-round: <http://www.psi.org/about-psi/psi-at-a-glance>
7. Spectrum Communications internships year-round: <http://www.spectrumscience.com/internships.html>
8. Global Health Fellows Program: <http://www.ghfp.net/>
9. Global Health Strategies internships year-round: <http://ghstrat.com/careers/>
10. International Health (IH) Blog posts available internships <http://aphaih.wordpress.com/tag/internship/>
11. NonprofitJobMarket online list of NGO job opportunities: www.nonprofitjobmarket.org/search.aspx
12. DevelopmentAid job board that posts 20-30 positions every day: <http://www.developmentaid.org/>.
13. The Development Classifieds: <http://www.comminit.com/en/classifieds/jobs?sort=asc&order=Location>
14. The Medical Library Association, career development services and specific jobs: <http://www.mlanet.org/jobs/index.html>

FAITH-BASED SEARCHES & VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

1. Bruce Carr's directory of resources for planning short-term medical & health missions: www.helpingoverseasdirectory.org
2. Mission Handbook (U.S. & Canadian Protestant), a directory of over 1000 mission agencies: www.billygrahamcenter.com/worldpulseonline/missionhandbook and Essential Guide to Short Term Mission Trips www.amazon.com/Essential-Guide-Short-Term-Mission/dp/0802425267
3. Volunteer, short-term Christian medical assignments: www.cmda.org, www.internationalaid.org, www.mercyandtruth.com, www.amginternational.org, www.blessing.org, or www.internationalmessengers.org.
4. The Catholic Volunteer Network www.cnvs.org lists thousands of volunteer opportunities. Click "Search volunteer opportunities."
5. MissionFinder, short-term health & medical missions, links with other websites on short-term missions: <http://mfinder.org/>
6. Visit ccih.org/students for a list of current internships and research positions from 160 of our member organizations & affiliates.

GOVERNMENT JOBS

1. Federal Government jobs, some of them are in global health and international development, are listed at <http://www.usajobs.gov/>.
2. U.S. Department of State's Bureau of International Organization provides information to U.S. citizens about professional employment opportunities at the United Nations and other international organizations <http://intlorganizationjobs.state.gov/iva/default.aspx>
3. If interested in working with the Federal Government as a contractor/subcontractor, check out the website of Federal Business Opportunities <https://www.fbo.gov/index?cck=1&au=&ck=>>
4. USAID New Entry Professional program. Go to www.usaid.gov, click on "careers." Jobs are available at scores of USAID-funded agencies. Many non-profits are listed in Voluntary Foreign Aid Programs (No. 1 above)

GENERAL DATABASES & SEARCH ENGINES

1. The Global Health Council Career Network at www.globalhealth.org/jobs/ describes scores of positions. GHC members can post their resumes online. Career Connection job fair at their annual June conference in Washington, DC brings many recruiting organizations. Sign up at <http://careers.globalhealth.org/search/agent/index.cfm> to receive job openings through email daily.
2. Global Health Career Ladder, maintained by Johns Hopkins Center for Global Health, is a searchable database dedicated to help job seekers find your next global health opportunity: <http://www.globalhealthcareerladder.org/>
3. The Public Health Employment Connection of the American Schools of Public Health Employment Council contains hundreds of current job openings in domestic/international health: <http://cfusion.sph.emory.edu/PHEC/phec.cfm>.
4. The American Public Health Association CareerMart lists jobs, mostly domestic: www.apha.org/career/. You can post your resume and search for listed jobs online. Their November annual meeting is great to seek jobs.
5. Public Health Jobs Worldwide, P.O. Box 6729, Charlottesville, VA 22906, publishes a bi-weekly newspaper listing over 500 jobs in the U.S. and overseas. www.jobspublichealth.com provides free access to many of these public health openings.
6. The American Medical Students Association: <http://www.amsa.org/global/>
7. Global Health Education Consortium: www.globalhealth-ec.org, click on "Resources."
8. The Association of Schools of Public Health www.asph.org job information service for students in public health. "Employment & Training." See listings, many academic jobs, subscribe to an email job notification service at www.publichealthjobs.net
9. CharityJob: the UK's busiest site for charity/non-profit jobs: www.charityjob.co.uk
10. Relief Web, maintained by the UN: Humanitarian Vacancies: www.reliefweb.int/vacancies. Subscribe to a weekly email giving over a hundred new openings.
11. Idealist: jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities in health and other sectors in 153 countries: www.idealist.org
12. DevNetJobs.org: www.devnetjobs.org is a list of international development jobs used by a large number of jobseekers and development recruiters. You may subscribe or gain free access to a lot of information.
13. Devex advertises international development jobs all around the world. Join for free: <http://www.devex.com/>.
14. University Coalitions for Global Health job database & listings www.ucgh.org/career-opportunities/jobs-and-related-information/.
15. Riley Guide and Job Hunt both provide a directory of up-to-date job search resources rileyguide.com and www.job-hunt.org/

OTHER JOB/INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

1. The World Bank www.worldbank.org and the projects it finances employ many mid-level health consultants. There is no central point to get information. Networking with the relevant offices is required.
2. For career and job pages of 36 leading global health employers <http://www.child-survival.org/resources/careers.php>
3. Check out with the career services office at your college/university or with local newspaper's website. Job openings are often posted there along with local career advice.
4. For names and websites of 88 organizations that employ international health professionals, go to www.ccih.org, click on "job search resource" and then click on the list of 88 organizations.